Call for an Academic Position - Department of Human Services

The Department of Human Services at the Department of Social Welfare and Health Sciences at the University of Haifa is pleased to announce the opening of a search process for an academic position in the field of human services.

The position is to be filled by a candidate with a master's degree (PhD) in a relevant field, such as work world and employment, social policy, non-governmental organizations, consumer behavior, marketing and consumer behavior, organizational behavior, human resources management, technology and information services.

Requirements:

- A master's degree (PhD) in a relevant field, with a background in relevant fields, such as work world and employment, social policy, consumer behavior, marketing and consumer behavior, organizational behavior, human resources management, technology and information services.
- Publications in scientific journals.
- Desirable is experience in teaching and the ability to teach in Hebrew.
- Preference will be given to candidates who have completed a post-doctoral degree in recognized institutions.

Candidates are required to submit the following by November 30, 2021:

- Detailed curriculum vitae, including a list of publications and professional/academic background.
- Names and addresses of three recommenders from academia.
- Selected publications.
- Description of research fields and future research plans, and a description of potential contributions to the Department.

Please send all the required information or any question related to this call to the head of the search committee, Prof. Gil Luria: gluria@univ.haifa.ac.il.

The position is open to all genders, without discrimination of gender, religion, race, or age. The University is not obligated to select one of the candidates.

The announcement is intended for both men and women, without gender discrimination. The University of Haifa does not guarantee the selection of any candidate.

http://hw.haifa.ac.il/index.php/departments/human
The Faculty of Social Welfare & Health Sciences is pleased to invite applicants for an open-rank tenure-track faculty position in the Department of Human Services.

The successful applicant will be expected to teach and supervise students for undergraduate and advanced degrees, initiate research and apply for research grants, and contribute to the field of Human Services. Further information about the Departmental can be found on the website: http://hw.haifa.ac.il/index.php/departments/human

Requirements:

- Ph.D. in the behavioral and social sciences, and areas of interest relevant to the Department, such as: labor studies, social policy, consumption society, marketing and consumer behavior, organizational behavior, human resources management, performance evaluations, civil society, technology-based services and related information systems.
- Publications in peer-reviewed journals
- Teaching experience and ability to teach in Hebrew
- Priority for those who have had Post-Doctoral training overseas.

Interested applicants are asked to send the following information until November 2021:

- CV including publication list, teaching experience and professional background.
- Names of 3 referees.
- Selected publications.
- A cover letter describing research areas and research plans, as well as potential contribution to the Department of Human Services.

The requested materials, and any preliminary queries, should be sent to the Search Committee Chair, Prof. Gil Luria, at: <gluria@univ.haifa.ac.il>.

The academic rank depends on the qualification of the candidate.

Filling the position depends upon academic and financial considerations.

The job offer is conditional on the approval of the University Rector.

This job posting applies to women and men alike and without distinction of religion, ethnic origin, and/or age.

The University is not obliged to choose one of the applicants.