The 1st Israeli Listening Research Conference

17 Aug 21, 15:00 - 21:00
Ono Academic College,
104 Tzahal Street,
Kiryat Ono
Hall 32

Please click here for registration

1st@ac.IL
The 1st Israeli Listening Research Conference

15:00-15:20 Opening remarks:
Dr. Moty Amar, Ono Academic College & Guy Itzchakov, Faculty of Social Welfare and Health Science, University of Haifa

15:20-16:20: Session 1
Prof. Avi Kluger, the Hebrew University of Jerusalem: Exposing the underlying assumptions of listeners, listening researchers, and listening trainers.

Dr. Osnat Bouskila-Yam, Ben-Gurion University: The effects of organizational culture, and leadership on listening during team meetings

16:20-16:45: Break

16:45-17:45: Session 2
Prof. Netta Weinstein, University of Reading & Prof. Nicole Legate, Illinois Institute of Technology: United through listening: High-quality listeners can bridge divides by supporting relatedness and autonomy

Dr. Moran Mizrahi, Ariel University: More than words: Nonverbal responsiveness contributes to the development of interpersonal trust
The 1st Israeli Listening Research Conference

Dr. Dotan Castro, Organizational consultant & Interdisciplinary center Hertzlia: Listening and the fine line of psychology safety. Lessons learned from theory and practice.

17:45-18:00 Break

18:00-19:00: Session 3- Graduate students
Mr. Roy Rave, University of Haifa: Principals’ listening buffers teachers stress on turnover Intention and promotes OCB, during the outbreak of Covid-19.

Mrs. Yaara Turjeman-Levi, The Hebrew University: My Sensitivity is your Business: Intrapersonal and Interpersonal effects of listeners’ Sensory-Processing Sensitivity

Mrs. Dvori Saluk, University of Haifa: Connection Heals Wounds: Feeling Listened to Reduces Speakers’ Loneliness Following a Social Rejection Disclosure

Mr. Erik Santoro, Stanford University: How Do You Listen?: The Relationship Between How Men Listen and Women’s Respect in the U.S
The 1st Israeli Listening Research Conference

19:00-19:30-Dinner

19:30-20:45: Session 4
Dr. Dina Nir, Ono Academic College: Formation and Transformation in Listening - A Dialogical Self Perspective

Prof. John Paul Stephens, Case Western Reserve University: Building Connections by Listening for the Parts and the Whole.

20:10-20:45: Summary in listening circles.