Call for Applications – Academic Position

The Department of Human Services at the University of Haifa invites applications for an academic position in the Department of Human Services at the University of Haifa. The position is open to all qualifications and is subject to the academic and financial considerations of the University.

Purpose:

The position of Professor (PhD) is open to all qualifications and is subject to the academic and financial considerations of the University. The successful candidate is expected to conduct research in the field of human services, to publish in leading scientific journals, to submit grant applications and to mentor students to advanced research in the field of human services.

The Department of Human Services is concerned with a range of issues related to people and organizations, whether within an organization (human resource management) or outside an organization (management of service systems). Human services is an interdisciplinary field that focuses on the study of work processes in organizations, with a focus on management services in the public and private sectors.

The Department of Human Services includes researchers in organizational behavior, social psychology, sociology, decision-making and economics.

Additional information can be found on the Department's website:

http://hw.haifa.ac.il/index.php/departments/human

Requirements:

- A PhD in the field of social sciences, and relevant expertise in the areas of human services.
- Proficiency in Hebrew is desirable.
- Preference will be given to candidates who have completed their postdoctoral studies at recognized institutions abroad.

Applicants are requested to submit the following by May 15, 2023:

- Detailed resume and list of publications, academic/professional background – according to the format of the University of Haifa – info-staff-academic-https://hw.haifa.ac.il/faculty-academic-staff-info
- Names and addresses of three academic references.
- Selected publications.
- Description of research areas and future research plans and a description of potential contribution to the Department of Human Services.

Please submit all requested information or any question related to the Call for Applications to: Department Chair, Yehudit Kaledon – gkald@staff.haifa.ac.il

We encourage applications from all qualifications and from groups that are under-represented in the academic sector in Israel.

The University is not obligated to appoint one of the applicants.

We encourage applications from all qualifications and from groups that are under-represented in the academic sector in Israel.

The University is not obligated to appoint one of the applicants.
Academic Position – Job Announcement

The Faculty of Social Welfare & Health Sciences is pleased to invite applicants for an open-rank tenure-track faculty position in the Department of Human Services.

The successful applicant will be expected to teach and supervise students for undergraduate and graduate studies, initiate research and apply for research grants, and contribute to the field of Human Services.

Human Services is an interdisciplinary field that deals with the service needs of citizens, employees and clients, whether service within the organization (Human Resources Management) or outside the organization (Service Management). Human Services is an interdisciplinary field that deals with the study of work processes in organizations, with an emphasis on service management in the public and third sectors. The faculty of the department includes researchers from the field of organizational behavior, social psychology, sociology, decision making and economics. Further information about the department can be found on the website: http://hw.haifa.ac.il/index.php/departments/human

Requirements:

- Ph.D. in the behavioral and social sciences, and areas of interest relevant to the department. mainly technology-based services and information systems, marketing, and consumer behavior. Additional relevant areas are social policy, civil society, organizational behavior, and human resources management.
- Publications in peer-reviewed journals that are listed in Web of Science.
- Teaching experience and ability to teach in Hebrew.
- Priority for those who have had Post-Doctoral training abroad.

Interested applicants are asked to send the following information until May 1st 2023:

- CV including publication list, teaching experience and professional background - https://hw.haifa.ac.il/faculty-academic-staff-info
- Names of 3 referees.
- Selected publications.
- A cover letter describing research areas and research plans, as well as potential contribution to the Department of Human Services.

The requested materials, and any preliminary queries, should be sent to Ms. Sarit Calderon-Gorkov: <scaldero@staff.haifa.ac.il>.

The academic rank depends on the qualification of the candidate.
Filling the position depends upon academic and financial considerations.
The job offer is conditional on the approval of the University Rector.

We encourage candidates from minority groups in the population that are currently underrepresented in higher education in Israel to apply. This job posting applies to women and men alike regardless of religion, ethnic origin, age and/or and or health status. The University is not committed to choose any one of the candidates.